POLICY STATEMENT:

Early Connections - Manning and Great Lakes is committed to ensuring that any person or organisation using Early Connections - Manning and Great Lakes services, who may be affected by its operations has the right to lodge a complaint or to appeal a decision of the organisation and to have their concerns addressed in ways that ensure access and equity, fairness, accountability and transparency.

The organisation will provide a complaints and appeals management procedure that:

- is simple and easy to use
- is effectively communicated and promoted to all clients and stakeholders
- ensures complaints or appeals are fairly assessed and responded to promptly
- is procedurally fair and follows principles of natural justice
- complies with legislative requirements

PRINCIPLES

Early Connections - Manning and Great Lakes will:

- consider all complaints it receives

- treat all complainants with respect, recognising that the issue of complaint is important to the complainant
- maintain confidentiality of parties involved, keeping any information private to those directly involved in the complaint and its resolution
- ensure advocacy is available to clients who make a complaint and require support
- resolve complaints in a timely manner
- keep parties to the complaint informed of progress of the complaint
- ensure that Management Committee members, staff, volunteers and students are given information about the complaint's procedure as part of their induction and are aware of procedures for managing client feedback and complaints
- ensure all services users, stakeholders and members are aware of the complaints policy and procedures
- ensure that a complainant is not penalised in any way or prevented from use of services during the progress of an issue
- ensure that feedback data (both positive and negative) is considered in organisational reviews and in planning service improvements

PROCEDURE

- ❖ Informal complaints, compliments or suggestions: Complaints may be made informally by talking to a staff member. Informal comments or suggestions can be:
 1. lodged using our "We welcome your feedback" form.
 2. Directed to any staff member. The staff member will ask the complainant if they would like to use our "we welcome your feedback form" or have the staff member pass the information on to the Manager. They will also explain our managing complaints procedures and ask if a formal complaint is requested.
 3. The complainant will be asked if they require feedback or follow-up following any needed actions (if any).
 4. The staff member or Manager (whichever appropriate) will give feedback to the complainant where it is requested.

- ❖ Formal Complaints: Complainants can escalate an informal complaint to a formal complaint or initiate this in the first instance.
 1. A formal complaint must first put their complaints in writing, in order to make the terms or basis of any complaint as clear as possible. Those involved with a complaint will have the opportunity to present their point of view. Complaints will be investigated as soon as practicable after being received. All complaints will be treated seriously and investigated. Support can be offered to assist with this step in the process.
 2. The complaint will be forwarded to the President or in their absence a member of the executive committee).
 3. The Manager and President (or executive committee representative) will discuss the complaint and where appropriate the Manager will respond as deemed necessary. The Manager and President will:
 - Consider the nature and details of the complaint.
 - Give all involved an opportunity to prepare and present information in regards to the complaint.
 - Maintain appropriate records of the complaints/disputes meeting. Hold records in a secure place (on cloud system in file viewable by Manager only as well as in locked
 - Respect the confidential nature of information relating to the complaint.
 - Review all relevant information and documentation submitted by persons involved in the complaint.
 - Inform the complainant that they can be supported by an advocate or support person of their choice.

- Meet individually with all persons mentioned in the complaint to gather information.
- Call all parties together to meet as a group to endeavor to resolve issues/dispute.
- Endeavor to resolve issues by mutual agreement.
- Formulate a written resolution plan to be distributed to all parties.
- Review the situation in regard to resolution within the following month.
- Keep the written complaint, all records and evidence of the resolution in a "Complaints File" kept in a secure computer file, only accessible by the Manager and Committee.

4. In the event that a complaint cannot be managed as above, the President will form complaints (subcommittee) and arrange a time to meet, inviting all personnel mentioned in the complaint. The above process will be followed by the sub-committee and actions decided upon.

LOGGING AN APPEAL

Complainants or their advocates may lodge an appeal if they disagree with a decision made by the organization. An appeal should be made in writing and submitted to the Manager or President within 7 days of the decision.

- ❖ In the event that the complaint continues to be unresolved to the satisfaction of all parties, the sub-committee will refer the matter to the committee, accompanied by a full report of the situation.
- ❖ The complaints sub-committee (or Management Committee), will advise the complainant and other relevant parties, of any decisions they have made relating to the complaint. Where appropriate the Complaints Sub-committee (or Committee), will set in place relevant mechanisms and/or procedures to monitor progress.
- ❖ Complainants should be made aware that they may wish to contact the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission Ph: 1800 035 544. From NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission "How to make a Complaint" brochure:

External complaints by clients or stakeholders made against a staff member, volunteer or student will be managed by the Manager, who will:

- notify the staff member, volunteer or student of the complaint and its nature
- investigate the complaint and provide the staff member, volunteer or student with an opportunity to respond to any issue raised
- attempt to mediate the dispute (if applicable) and/or attempt to resolve the matter to the satisfaction of the outside party
- take any other action necessary to resolve the issue

Any disciplinary action against a staff member, volunteer or student arising from a complaint will be dealt with in an appropriate manner that will be based on the seriousness of the issue eg: disciplinary action:

- dismissed
- notification to an external agency
- criminal charges

Complaints involving the Manager will be managed by the president of the management committee.

Complaints involving organisation members or Management Committee members

Complaints made against a member of the Management Committee will be referred to the President. The President or their delegate will:

- notify the person about whom a complaint is being made of, the complaint and its nature
- investigate the complaint and provide the member with an opportunity to respond to any issues raised
- attempt to mediate the dispute (if appropriate) and/or attempt to resolve the matter to the satisfaction of the outside party

Where the President is the subject of a complaint, the complaint should be referred to other office bearers.

If the matter remains unresolved, the President or notified office bearer will raise the matter at the next Management Committee meeting. Depending on the seriousness of the complaint, the Management Committee may:

- deal with the matter at its meeting
- or
- refer the matter to the process outlined in Early Connections - Manning and Great Lakes constitution

REVIEWING THE COMPLAINT

If the complainant is not satisfied with the investigation and proposed resolution of their complaint or appeal they can seek a further review of the matter by

REFERRAL TO EXTERNAL PROCEDURE

A formal external complaints procedure may follow if the complainant is still not satisfied with the outcome. The complainant will be referred to the Ombudsman.

RECORD KEEPING

A register of complaints and appeals will be kept in a register/file in a locked cupboard and also logged on Organisational spreadsheet kept in Manager's external storage drive. The register will be maintained by the Manager and will record the following for each complaint or appeal:

- Details of the complainant and the nature of the complaint
- Date lodged
- Action taken
- Date of resolution and reason for decision
- Indication of complainant being notified of outcome
- Complainant response and any further action

Copies of all correspondence will be kept in the register/file.

The complaints register and files will be confidential, and access is restricted to the Manager/Management Committee.

A summary of any complaint will be reported by the Manager at the following Management Committee Meeting.

Results from this report will be reviewed by the Manager and the Management Committee and used to:

- inform service planning by including a review of complaints and appeals in all service planning, monitoring and evaluation activities
- inform decision making by including a report on complaints and appeals as a standard item on staff and management meeting agendas

Complaints involving specific staff members, volunteers or students

The Manager has delegated responsibility for resolving complaints or disputes involving staff members, volunteers or students.

Internal complaints, where a staff member, volunteer or student makes a complaint concerning another staff member, volunteer or student, will be dealt with in accordance with the Early Connections - Manning and Great Lakes Managing Complaints Policy and Procedure.
